PLACES OF CULTURE

P.zza San Benedetto, San Bonifacio

A. ABBAZIA DI VILLANOVA

The most significant religious presence in the entire area from 1000/1100. The bell tower, renovated in 1149, is a watch tower and overlooks the Postumia. A religious settlement of the Benedictines, it had both a religious and social function. Founded by the Counts of San Bonifacio, this abbey possessed numerous lands throughout the Bassa, Valpantera and Valpolicella thanks to legacies in the wills of the population. It remained functional until the early 18th century. The abbey is located on the Romea Strada (Romea = destination Rome, Strada = paved road), an important crossroads for pilgrimages. Inside the abbey, on the first column to the left you can see the outline of a shoe, to convey that this was a place that gave hospitality to those walking in their own shoes. It offers hospitality and is the starting point of the Via dell'Iris.

Monte Garzon, Tregnago

B. ACQUEDOTTO PEREZ - POMPEI

Villa Sagromoso in Illasi has a two-metre wide strip of land, owned by the villa, that runs from Illasi to Finetti: This strip hosts an aqueduct that once carried water for "le limonare", the ponds, and "le cedare" of the villa. In front of the Illasi town hall, in the square, photos were taken showing a basin into which excess water flowed.

45.4786°N, 11.1941°E

C. BORGIO CASTELLO - SANTUARIO SAN FELICE

From Borgo Castello starts a road that arrives at the San Felice Sanctuary. An important route that is part of the wool route.

45.4726°N, 11.2017°E

D. BORGIO CASTELLO E MALESAN

The two oldest parts of Cazzano are also interesting from an architectural perspective, particularly regarding the houses.

45.4699°N, 11.2133°E

F. CALTRANO

A small inhabited village with interesting architecture. The recently renovated fountain is located here.

45.5061°N, 11.2044°E

G. CAMPIANO

If it is not the centre of the world, it is certainly the centre of the Via dell'Iris. A jewel set in the Tramigna Valley.
